

California Division of Fish and Game - Stream Survey

Name of Stream -- Russian Gulch Tributary to Pacific Ocean River System -- Russian Gulch
Other names County -- Mendocino Township 17N Range 17W Section 18
Stream Section: From: To: Length of stream section:
LOWER MIDDLE UPPER

Length of region

Station 400 ft. above mouth
Date May 21, 1940
Hour 10:10a.m.
Weather overcast
Altitude 0 ft.
Stream condition av. - clear
Average width 11.5 ft.
Average depth 4.5 in.
volume calc. 3.68 CFS (approx.)
velocity R 1 ft. per sec.
Permanency
Air Temperature 55
Water Temperature 52.5
Spawning areas good
Shade arboreal (conifers)
Pools and shelter good

Character of drainage basin: canyons, hilly, wooded, uncultivated, open grassy areas

Remarks: May 21, 1940: Stream open into ocean, no lagoon, sandy beach. At L. station: Silver salmon and steelhead 3-1/2 to 5 in. (unreadable word here) in lower stretches, in pools; no larger fish seen.

References: State Forestry Mendocino Co. 1938 map

Signature of surveyor: Leo Shapovalov