

State of California

The Resources Agency

Memorandum

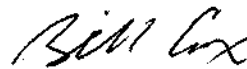

To : Files

Date : November 23, 1993

From : Department of Fish and Game

Subject: Green Valley Creek, Sonoma County

Mike Fawcett, a fishery consultant working for the City of Santa Rosa, reports that he seined Green Valley Creek at the Fred Allen property off Green Valley School Road and captured several juvenile coho salmon. Coho have been reported from Green Valley Creek in the past, but have had no recent reports and have seen none myself. Mike is a reliable source of information.

Bill Cox
Associate Fishery Biologist